

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE THAILAND-LAOS-CAMBODIA BROTHERHOOD
(Incorporating all Amendments enacted through 2014)

Article I. Name and Principal Office

The name of the organization shall be The Thailand-Laos- Cambodia Brotherhood, which shall be incorporated under the name "TLC Brotherhood," and hereinafter referred to as TLCB or TLC Brotherhood. The principal office shall be located in Fairfax County, in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Article II. Objectives

The TLC Brotherhood is organized for the following purposes and no other:

1. To provide a benevolent, non-partisan association primarily for veterans, both military and civilian, of the era of United States involvement in the armed conflicts in Southeast Asia, with a primary interest in service outside the Republic of Vietnam, and open to all who contribute dues, if any, and agree to support these objectives. Association shall be facilitated by provision of means of communication among members and to the public for educational purposes. These means may include internet member lists and websites as well as periodic newsletters for members not using the internet.
2. To provide charitable assistance through endeavors that the membership may select from time to time. Financial assistance using TLC Brotherhood funds shall be limited to charitable causes or organizations and shall not inure to the benefit of any individual member of the TLC Brotherhood.
3. To honor the service of those described in Objective 1, and the memory of those who died or are missing in action as a result of their service.
4. To collect and preserve the history of the service of those described in Objective 1, and to promote public knowledge and understanding of this service through educational activities.

Article III. Non-Profit Corporation

TLCB is not for profit. Hence, no financial residue from the activities of TLCB shall inure to the benefit of any member or individual, officer, or other private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the objectives set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the objectives of this corporation.

Article IV. Board of Directors of the TLC Brotherhood ("the board")

The Board of Directors shall be comprised of the following officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chaplain. In addition there shall be four Members-at-Large. Members of the board shall serve for two years, except that the initial term for the President, Treasurer, and two Members-at-Large shall be for one year. After serving three consecutive terms no member of the board may serve in the same position until at least one term will have elapsed. The Board of Directors represents the members of TLC Brotherhood and shall take no action that is contrary to a majority vote of the members

Article V. Bylaws

The members of TLCB shall adopt, and may from time to time amend, such bylaws as may be required to carry out the objectives of these Articles.

Article VI. Amendments

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws of TLC Brotherhood may be proposed by the Board of Directors, or by any members by petition to the Board, signed by at least twenty percent of active members. Amendments to these Articles shall be adopted if approved by at least 2/3 of active members.

Amendments of the By-Laws proposed by unanimous recommendation of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by a simple majority of the Thailand-Laos-Cambodia Brotherhood membership. Amendments recommended by less than unanimous recommendation of the Board of Directors, or by Petition of the membership, shall be adopted if approved by a super-majority of 2/3 of the Thailand-Laos-Cambodia Brotherhood membership.

Article VII. Disestablishment

The TLC Brotherhood may be disestablished by a vote of 2/3 of the active members. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets will be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

I, Gary D. Beatty, Secretary, do hereby certify that having conducted a diligent search of all available archives, and official publications, of the Thailand-Laos-Cambodia Brotherhood, the foregoing are a true and correct rendition of our Articles of Incorporation in effect as of this date.
